A Letter from the President of the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce

Gary Stymus, President

Greetings from the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce. We want to take a moment and congratulate all of the recent graduates. Your hard work has paid off and great things are in store for you. We wish you the very best.

Summer is rapidly approaching and we have quite a bit in store for everyone. First up is the Annual Fourth of July Parade and Festival. This year's theme is "Building Dreams, Friendships, and Memories". We will begin at 10:30 at Redwood High School and wind our way through Larkspur to the Town Center. The Festival will begin immediately after the parade at the Corte Madera Town Park. Please join us for a fun day of food, music, and games. If you are interested in participating in the parade or festival, please call us at 415-924-0441. We hope to see you all there.

We will be hosting our 2nd annual Corte Madera Night at The Pacifics ball game on June 28th. Come and help us celebrate our town and root on The Pacifics. There is something for everyone in the family, including promotional giveaways, games and competitions between innings, and hopefully a great baseball game. For tickets go to the Chamber website www.cortemadera.org

The Annual Countywide Mixer will take place on Wednesday, July 25th at Peacock Gap. It is a great way to meet other business people from the county while also promoting your business. The event is always well attended, with the chambers from Novato, San Rafael, Larkspur, Mill Valley, and Hispanic participating. For more information, please check out our website at cortemadera.org.

After a one year hiatus, the chili cook off and Police/Fire softball game will return on August 18th. Then, the Police and Fire departments will take the field for bragging rights in a highly entertaining softball game. Live music and refreshments will also be available. Come out and enjoy some chili and cheer on our local first responders. It is sure to be a great time. Anyone interested in entering the chili cook off can contact us at the Chamber office.

Thank you to my fellow board members. I appreciate your tireless work and dedication to making the chamber a success. It is a pleasure to serve on the board with you all. Thank you to our fearless leader, Julie Kritzberger. Your efforts don't go unnoticed, and we are certainly lucky to have you. Lastly, thank you to all our members. Without you, we would not be here. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you. Our door and ears are always open.

From the Desk of the Town Council Liaison

Carla Condon, Liaison to the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce

By the time this goes to print, the election will be over and we'll see new faces on our Town Council. This will be my last column as Town Council Liaison to our dedicated Chamber of Commerce.

It's been such an honor and privilege to have served over 16 years on the Town Council, and I'm stepping down with very mixed emotions. It's been such a gratifying experience to take an active part in guiding the Town and I'm forever grateful for the wonderful support I had from so many wonderful people in our community. Needless to say, it was not always an easy ride, especially during the economic downturn, but thanks to our dedicated staff, wise, thoughtful members of the Town Council over the years, supportive residents and our foresighted business community, our Town prevailed.

During my tenure, I've witnessed the importance of public participation and I have seen public awareness increase. I hope this continues, not only for the sake of local issues, but also for awareness of legislative actions which can have profound effects on our Town. It takes more than 5 people on the dais to have a strong voice in Sacramento.

How proud I will always be of our beautiful Town with the iconic hanging baskets, the spectacular views of Mt. Tam and the bay and wildlife. We have thriving businesses that support our infrastructure and services. The spirit of volunteerism is all pervasive and the more involvement there is, the more small town feeling will endure.

Recognizing the issues of aging in Marin, and the growing population of those 60 and over, it's been so rewarding to work with such dedicated members of the community to confront the issues and find solutions. The World Health Organization has included Corte Madera in its global network of age-friendly cities worldwide. AARP has designated Corte Madera as a "Livable Community," recognizing the Town's elected leadership has made the commitment to actively work toward making Corte Madera a great place for people of all ages.

Being an integral part of the establishment of the Corte Madera Intergenerational Center has been especially meaningful to me, and I hope it will have the same effect on all those who participate in the quality activities that The Center offers. The Intergenerational Center boasts educational, creative and social opportunities for all as well as a focus on health, welfare, values and community involvement. Coming soon, and of special interest, especially to the youth, is a Makerspace equipped with a 3D printer and laser cutter. The Center is considered a "template" for the value of intergenerational involvement in the County and has already been the recipient of grants from the Board of Supervisors, the Department of Health and Human Services Aging Division and the EE Bettelheim Family Foundation. I urge everyone to take advantage of what the Intergenerational Center has to offer. With a modest, tax-deductible donation, all programs are of no charge for the rest of 2018. Check out www.agefriendlycenter.org or call 415.991.4040 for further information.

Although my days on the Council are over, I intend to stay involved and contribute what I can to the Town and the people that mean so much to me. From the bottom of my heart, I thank all of you for the opportunity of a lifetime, allowing me to serve you; and my thanks to the dedication of our Town Staff, Julie Kritzberger, Executive Director of our Chamber of Commerce and its members and our entire business community who play key roles making our Town so very special. We are all so blessed.

The upscale

fast casual restaurant features thin crust pizzas with gluten-free options, more than 20 farm fresh toppings and seasonal specialty side dishes such as Mango Coconut Couscous, Caramelized Orange and Kale Salad, Apple Kiwi Salad and more. ## Age-Friendly Update

AFCM's big news is the opening of the innovative Age-Friendly Intergenerational Center in a redesigned portion of our community center that long ago served as Corte Madera's library. Please visit agefriendlycenter.org to see current programs and activities, photos from the grand opening on April 29, and to learn more about the concept of this inviting new recreational space that welcomes all ages. Assistance is also available by phone at 415.991.4040.

The Age-Friendly Task Force continues to pursue the objectives outlined in our 2017 Strategic Plan and will focus on several areas, including a plan to design a map of the accessible paths and walkways in town, identifying the locations of benches, restrooms and drinking fountains.

Members of the Corte Madera Lions Club stepped up during the spring and provided older residents assistance with varied household problems. Big thanks to these volunteers and AFCM member Marge Cavalli for coordinating this effort.

Of course, AFCM participated in CM's Senior Fair on May 24, spreading the word about offerings at the new intergenerational center and other pertinent and helpful information.

The popular free Third Wednesday Speaker Series held at the Central Marin Police Authority facility in Larkspur continues to provide spot-on information and advice. Upcoming summer talks include "Nature, Play and Aging" in June, "Unique Hidden Places in Marin" in July, "Driving as We Age" in August, and September's presentation "Why Does Everyone Mumble?" addresses age-related hearing difficulties.

It is a great honor to have AFCM chosen to be the Grand Marshall in our town's 2018 Fourth of July Parade, as Marin County continues to celebrate the official Year of the Older Adult. Be sure to wave as we go by!

Our annual "Corte Madera Honors Our Nonagenarians and Centenarians" is anticipating its fourth celebration on Sunday, August 26. This is a time for the community to gather and recognize those in town who are 90 or greater. It is always an enjoyable and inspiring event, so mark your calendars to join in the festivities. And please be sure to contact AFCM if you know of someone in Corte Madera who should be honored: mail to agefriendlycortemadera@gmail.com or phone 415-480-9758.

Corte Madera & Larkspur Residents Free Chipper Weekend • July 7 & 8, 2018

Dispose of your brush, branches, and dead vegetation. Bring them to:

WHERE: The gravel overflow parking lot on Redwood Highway (North of Nordstrom at The Village at Corte Madera)

WHEN: 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Saturday and Sunday

For the safety of our workers, some regulations:

- Collection is for "vegetation" waste only. No lumber, appliances, trash, metal objects, batteries, hazardous waste, etc. will be accepted.
- Stumps and poison oak will not be accepted.
- Any small plant material that has been pulled out by the roots must be free of rocks and dirt or it will not be accepted.
- No wire or metal of any kind may be mixed with the yard waste.
- Proof of Corte Madera or Larkspur residency is required.

We aim to provide a "classic" summer camp experience. Once the Summer Playground bug is caught it is nearly impossible to get rid of. In fact, many of our counselors and C.I.T's (counselors in training) were once campers here. Even our 2018 Camp Director Ashley Parrott attended Summer Playground from the age 8 years old! Every counselor is CPR and AED certified. Summer Playground is open between 7:30am and 6:30pm. We offer an art, sport and game every hour that campers are allowed to float between at their discretion. Field trips, pool days, and special guests are another fun feature of our program. Registration is open!

Employee or Independent Contractor? Use the ABC Test!

On April 30, 2018, the California Supreme Court issued a landmark decision in Dynamex Operations West, Inc. v. Superior Court, No. S222732, in which the court heightened the decades-old test for determining if a worker is an employee or an independent contractor, applying a more rigid, even more worker-friendly test.

Previously, the test used for classifying workers as employees or independent contractors considered multiple factors without a particular emphasis on, or requirement of, any one factor.

The new test makes it harder for companies to classify workers as independent contractors by requiring three factors to occur in conjunction as a threshold test for determining contractor status. Under the new test, the employer or “principal,” as the hiring entity is called in relation to a contractor, now bears the burden of establishing all of the following “ABC” factors to prove the worker is an independent contractor and not an employee:

(a) that the worker is free from the control and direction of the hiring entity in connection with the performance of the work, both under the contract and in fact; and

(b) that the worker performs work that is outside the usual course of the hiring entity’s business; and

(c) that the worker is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, or business of the same nature as the work he or she performed for the principal.

An employer’s failure to establish any of the three factors will result in a determination that the worker is an employee as a matter of law.

The Court’s ruling specifically applies to claims asserted under the IWC Wage Orders, which impose obligations related to minimum wages, overtime, and required meal and rest breaks. It is unclear how the case applies to claims arising under other statutes.

What does this mean for employers?

With the constant influx of class action lawsuits regarding independent contractor status, companies doing business in California that treat some of its workers as independent contractors should immediately review those relationships under the ABC test. Moving forward, employers must use even more scrutiny when examining their use of independent contractors, including any independent contractor agreements, to ensure compliance with the new standard. It also means that the vast majority of people working for a company will be considered employees if they perform work that is in the usual course of business of the company, even if those people clearly have their own business and act autonomously in their day-to-day duties. Therefore, employers should seriously reconsider classifying virtually all of their individual vendors as employees or at least realize the peril of penalties if they do not.
